

Beyond the Secret Garden Quiz

To celebrate the launch of Ann Thwaite's eye-opening biography of famed children's author Frances Hodgson Burnett, we invite you to take part in Duckworth's Beyond the Secret Garden Quiz.

The book will be published on 6th August 2020 ahead of the global release of the new film, The Secret Garden, starring Julie Walters and Colin Firth. All the answers to the quiz can be found in the pages of the book, so be sure to pre-order your copy now.

There are eight prizes, all of which are vintage books written by Frances Hodgson Burnett and from Ann Thwaite's own collection. Each book carries her ownership signature.

Questions:

1. Which was the first book Frances remembered owning as a child?
2. A Salford girl inspired 'That Lass o' Lowrie's'. What was she doing when Frances saw her in Islington Square?
3. What was the name of the house the Burnetts lived in, in Newmarket, Tennessee?
4. Which book by Frances 'much amused the neighbourhood', according to Emily Dickinson?
5. What was the address of the house from which Frances escaped in her night-dress?
6. Where did Frances's son, Lionel, die?
7. Which book was inspired by the house in London which has her blue plaque?
8. Who did Frances accuse of blackmail?
9. Who did Frances call 'a darling brute'?
10. In which book did Frances stress how much she liked to garden, even enjoying the tedious job of weeding?

Please send your answers via email to Duckworth at info@duckworthbooks.com

The deadline to provide answers is 25th November 2020. Lucky winners will be selected by Ann and contacted on 1st December 2020 for mailing address to receive their prize.

